ACTIVATE Science Team Meeting

13-15 November 2023
- Tucson ("The Old Pueblo")
  - Metropolitan population ~ 1 million
  - UA, Raytheon, Davis Monthan Air Force Base
  - First UNESCO City of Gastronomy designated in the United States
  - North American Monsoon
  - Sky Island Laboratory (Mt Lemmon), Biosphere 2, IPMSI NASA site (AERONET, Pandora, GPM) on campus
  - Numerous departments focused on atmospheric research

Introductions: Sorooshian and Zeng groups are contact point for needs during the meeting, including organizing activities after meeting ends Wednesday as desired
- Biosphere 2, Mt. Lemmon, Sabino Canyon, Desert Museum, Campus tour, Pima Air and Space Museum, Kitt Peak

University of Arizona
- Founded 1885
- Arizona's Land Grant University

Land Acknowledgement
We respectfully acknowledge the University of Arizona is on the land and territories of Indigenous peoples. Today, Arizona is home to 22 federally recognized tribes, with Tucson being home to the O'odham and the Yaqui. Committed to diversity and inclusion, the University strives to build sustainable relationships with sovereign Native Nations and Indigenous communities through education offerings, partnerships, and community service.

- Room open 7:30 am each morning
- Armin Sorooshian/Eva-Lou Edwards have 24/7 access if needed
  - 520-465-6221 (Armin Sorooshian)
  - 970-903-3787 (Eva-Lou Edwards)
- Door will be locked during lunch so can leave belongings
- Wifi = free for public (UAGuest)
- Wireless or handheld mic for speakers; handheld mics for audience
- Recording of meeting will be posted online after meeting
- We encourage use of the chat feature for questions and discussion
- Café and restrooms outside the room

Day 1 = Brief overview of ACTIVATE data and project status; science presentations; open discussion Day 2-3 = blend of discussion, group work, and science presentations

Reminder about available resources:
- 2021 and 2022 data workshop webinars and instrument/analysis team videos
  - https://asdc.larc.nasa.gov/n ews/activate-data-webinar-materials

Credit: Eddie Winstead